

Global Leadership Partners Asia

Evolving 21st Century Leadership

First 100 Days

A Global Leadership Program for Individuals

The First 100 Days program will help you to arrive at your new assignment confident, relaxed, optimistic and prepared to operate at your best.

The first few days at your new role are filled with curiosity, challenge and intrigue. Expectations and anxiety are high. This is the time to build momentum, set the tone and establish expectations. It is when first impressions are formed, your leadership style is establishing and initiatives are planned.

This program will help you to ensure your success with:

- clear objectives
- understanding of your strengths/areas for development
- stakeholder strategy
- elevator pitch
- plan for high performance team
- vision statement